PREFACE

"New Songs for Service"

Our new book contains a superior grade of new Gospel Songs and a choice selection of the old hymns, all of which contribute definitely toward supplying the kind of music demanded by present educational and religious interest.

The title "New Songs for Service" describes appropriately this new book. In order to make it the best possible collection, we have called into consultation the men who have had the most experience in building successful Song Service programs. In addition to these, Mr. Charles H. Gabriel, Mr. B. D. Ackley, and Mr. Homer Hammontree have been advisors and critics from the musical standpoint.

Homer Rodeheaver has given more of his personal time and attention to the compiling of this book than any other we have ever made.

The names of these men are sufficient guarantee that it is worthy of your careful consideration.

The Rodeheaver Company.

MY HOPE IS BUILT

2. When darkness veils His love-ly face, I rest on His unchanging grace;

COME, YE THANKFUL PEOPLE

HENRY ALFORD — GEORGE J. ELVEY

1. Come, ye thank-ful peo-ple, come, Raise the song of har-vest-home:
2. All the world is God's own field, Fruit un-to His praise to yield;
3. For the Lord our God shall come, And shall take His har-vest home;
4. E-ven so, Lord, quick-ly come To Thy fi-nal har-vest-home;
All is safe-ly gath-ered in, Ere the win-ter storms be-gin;
Wheat and tares to-geth-er sown, Un-to joy or sor-row grown;
From His field shall in that day All of-fens-es purge a-way;
Gath-er Thou Thy peo-ple in, Free from sor-row, free from sin;
God, our Ma-ker, doth pro-vide For our wants to be sup-plied:
First the blade, and then the ear, Then the full corn shall ap-pear:
Give His an-gels charge at last In the fire the tares to cast;
There, for-ev-er pu-ri-fied, In Thy pres-ence to a-bide:
Come to God's own tem-ple, come, Raise the song of har-vest-home.
Lord of har-vest, grant that we Wholesome grain and pure may be.
But the fruit-ful ears to store In His gar-ner ev-er-more.
Come, with all Thine an-gels, come, Raise the glo-rious har-vest-home.

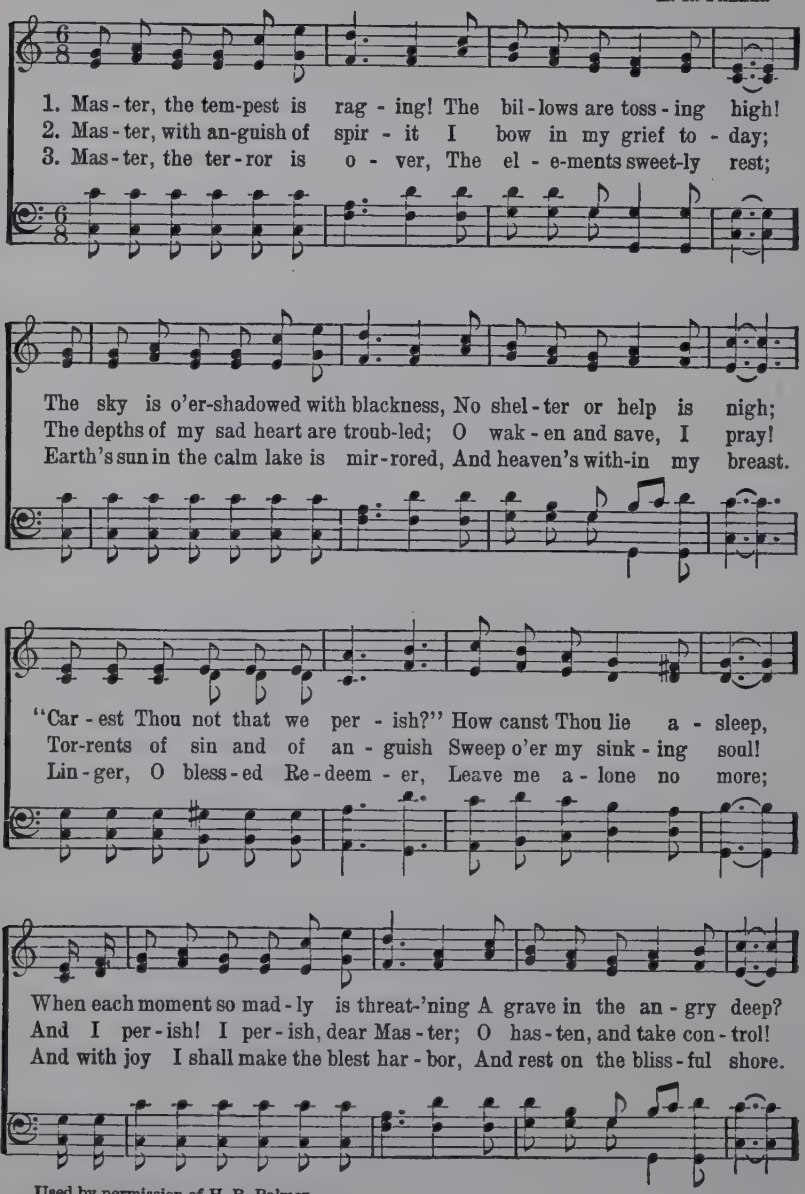
268 MASTER, THE TEMPEST IS RAGING

MARY A. BAKER H. R. PALMER



1. Mas-ter, the tem-pest is rag-ing! The bil-lows are toss-ing high!
2. Mas-ter, with an-guish of spir-it I bow in my grief to-day;
3. Mas-ter, the ter-ror is o-ver, The el-e-ments sweet-ly rest;
The sky is o'er-shadowed with blackness, No shel-ter or help is nigh;
The depths of my sad heart are troub-led; O wak-en and save, I pray!
Earth's sun in the calm lake is mir-rored, And heaven's with-in my breast.
"Car-est Thou not that we per-ish?" How canst Thou lie a-sleep,
Tor-rents of sin and of an-guish Sweep o'er my sink-ing soul!
Lin-ger, O bless-ed Re-deem-er, Leave me a-lone no more;
When each moment so mad-ly is threat-'ning A grave in the an-gry deep?
And I per-ish! I per-ish, dear Mas-ter; O has-ten, and take con-trol!
And with joy I shall make the blest har-bor, And rest on the bliss-ful shore.

283 WORLD SERVICE

Instrumental Music: "O Worship the King." Hymn 131.

Prayer: We are coming into a greater consciousness of thee O God as we know thy children better. Help us to realize that all people are thy children. Help us to know our brothers. Help us to serve with our brothers. Amen.

Song: "Jesus Calls Us." Hymn 154.

Scripture (Leader): Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw him, they worshipped him, but some doubted.

And Jesus came and spake unto them saying, "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth."

Song: "All Hail the Power." Hymn 37.

Scripture: (Unison): Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Song: "Till the Whole World Knows." Hymn 192.

Story to be told by some person previously appointed.

A group of missionaries were talking together. The missionary from Africa was very sure that the Africans were the ones for whom God yearned the most. Likewise the one from China was sure the Chinese were God's best beloved. Each in turn gave very good reasons why God longed especially for the people he was serving. An interested observer came to the conclusion that each missionary through close contact with the people he served had come to know them so well that he was able to appreciate all their desirable qualities. So it will be when we really know our brothers of other countries. We will come to see the yearning heart of God for all mankind.

Song: "Open My Eyes That I May See." Hymn 232.

284 PATRIOTIC

Song: "America the Beautiful." First stanza. Hymn 280.

"O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea!"

Prayer (Leader): Help us, O God, to appreciate our America, the beautiful, with its amber waves of grain and fruited plain. May God truly shed His grace on this country.

Song: "America the Beautiful." Second stanza. Hymn 280.

"O beautiful for pilgrim feet, whose stern, impassioned stress,
A thoroughfare for freedom beat across the wilderness!
America! America! God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self control, thy liberty in law!"

Prayer (Group): We thank thee, O God, for the heritage which we have. We remember with grateful hearts those who came to this land where they might worship Thee in freedom. Help us to be true to our heritage.

Song: "America the Beautiful. Third stanza. Hymn 280.

"O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved, and mercy more than life!
America! America! May God thy gold refine
Till all success be nobleness, and ev'ry gain divine!"

Talk: On some heroes our country has known, such as

Abraham Lincoln	Jacob Riis
Frances Willard	Booker T. Washington

Song: "America the Beautiful." Fourth stanza. Hymn 280.

Played first by instrument without singing. Repeat with audience singing.

"O beautiful for patriot dream that sees beyond the years,
Thine alabaster cities gleam undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea!"

Scripture (Responsive Reading): Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him.

For the Lord, thy God, bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey;

A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack anything in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee

But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is He that giveth thee power to get wealth, that He may establish His covenant which He sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day. Deut. 8:6-18.

Song: "God of Our Fathers Whose Almighty Hand." Hymn 279.

Salute to the American Flag: "I pledge allegiance to my flag and the country for which it stands, one nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

Song: "America." Hymn 150.

Salute to the Christian Flag: "I pledge allegiance to the Christian flag and the Savior for whose kingdom it stands, one brotherhood uniting all mankind in service and love."

Song: "Jesus Shall Reign." Hymn 193.

285 HOME COMING

Instrumental Music: "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God." Hymn 77.

Invocation: God of Our Fathers, we come together again to renew our pledge of allegiance to Thee. We meet, bringing with us memories of many happy hours spent here together. We have also been thru sorrows and trials together but Thou hast always been our strength and shield, so our service today is one of grateful memories. We are grateful that we have been permitted to come together and we would not fail to thank Thee for the lives of those we have known here but have lost awhile. Help us to be true to their faith. Amen.

Scripture (To be read by the women): Acts 16:1-5.

Then came he to Derbe and Lystra, and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus (the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed, but his father was a Greek.)

Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

Him would Paul have to go forth with him, and took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters, for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

And as they went through the cities they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

Song: "Faith of Our Fathers."

Leader: The faith of our fathers was one founded on experiences which sent them to the feet of Jesus on the cross. In the memory of that faith let us sing.

Song: "The Old Rugged Cross." Hymn 2.

Three minute talk on "What My Church Home Has Meant to Me," followed by one minute impromptu talks on the subject by volunteers.

Solo: "The Old Fashioned Meeting." Hymn 136.

Three minute talk on "What My Own Home Has Meant to Me," followed by one minute impromptu talks on the same subject.

Scripture (To be read by the men): Matt. 16:13-18.

When Jesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples saying, "Whom do men say that I the Son of Man am?"

And they said, "Some say that Thou art John the Baptist, some Elias, and others Jeremias, or one of the prophets."

He said unto them, "But whom say ye that I am?"

And Simon Peter answered and said, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."

And Jesus answered and said unto him, "Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona, for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

"And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church."

Song: "Men of the Church of the Living God." Hymn 264.

Address: On the needs of this church today.

Prayer (Unison): Dear Father, as Thou hast been our stay in ages past wilt Thou be our guide in the future. Grant that the future of this church may be more glorious than it has been in the past. We rest on Thy promises to be with us constantly. Bless those of us who are here and those who would be here but cannot. Make us in turn a blessing to our community. Amen.

Song: "God Will Take Care of You." Hymn 56.

Benediction.

286 DECISION DAY

(Consecration Service)

Song: "I Gave My Life for Thee." Stanzas 2 and 4. Hymn 226.

Prayer (Unison, accompanied by music of "I Gave My Life for Thee," played very softly):

Thou gavest Thy life for us, O Christ. We would be mindful of Thy great gift and would give only our best to Thee. Help us to realize that only the best can be acceptable to our King. Give us the gift of understanding that we may bravely face our faults and seek the true value of our ability. Help us to face life bravely. Help us to realize that only by accepting Thy will for our lives can we reach the greatest usefulness and attain the greatest happiness for our lives."

Solo: "I Would Be True." Hymn 175.

Scripture (Responsive): I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

And be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office, so we, being many, are one body in Christ and every one members one of another. Romans 12:1-5.

Song: "Have Thine Own Way." Hymn 230.

Story to be told by some girl:

A little Korean girl was singing a song before a great audience. The song she had chosen was "Take My Life and Let It Be." When she came to the line "Take my hands, and let them move at the impulse of Thy love"—gladly she stretched forth her little hands, and there was not an entire finger on either hand. The audience gasped.

Next she sang "Take my feet and let them be swift and beautiful for Thee." It was evident that infantile paralysis had marked those little crippled feet as one of its victims. Yet joyfully she sang on and the audience wept. When she finished her song and had laid at the master's feet her gold, her time, her voice, her will, her heart, yea even her life, many perfect hands and feet and well filled lives in that audience were laid in grateful offering at the feet of the Master.

Song: "Take My Life and Let It Be." Hymn 229.

Responsive Prayer: For health and strength,

We thank Thee, O God;
For the ability to work,

Closing Song: "Lead On, O King Eternal." Hymn 57.

287 THANKSGIVING

Call to Worship: On the first Thanksgiving, our forefathers gathered together to thank God for blessings they had received. Let us in this day when God has so bountifully blest us, thank Him no less heartily for the great blessings which we enjoy. We have come far along the road physically, mentally and spiritually, since those bleak days of 1620 when illness and lack of food mowed down the little colony. Let us praise Him.

Song: Doxology.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Leader: The comforts which we enjoy belong to our Father—Let us thank Him.

Prayer (All): We realize, O God, our Father, that we have much for which to thank Thee. We know that all we have is Thine to be used by us in Thy service. The sunshine, the birds, the flowers, the trees, the food which we eat, the clothes we wear, all are Thine, and we thank Thee for them. Help us to use them as we would property belonging to another. Amen.

Song: "This Is My Father's World." Hymn 171.

One minute talks on the theme "What I have to Be Thankful For."

Song: "Come Ye Thankful People." Hymn 188.

Responsive Reading: We plow the fields and scatter the good seed on the land,

But it is fed and watered by God's almighty hand;

He sends the snow in winter, the warmth to swell the grain,

The breezes and the sunshine and soft refreshing rain.

Solo: "We Plow the Fields, and Scatter." Second stanza. Hymn 181.

He only is the Maker of all things near and far;
He paints the wayside flower, He lights the evening star;
The winds and waves obey Him, by Him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, His children, He gives our daily bread.

Scripture Reading (Leader):

O come, let us sing unto the Lord;
Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.
Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving;
Let us make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms.

(First Group):

O give thanks unto the Lord, call upon His name;
Make known among the peoples His doings;
Sing unto Him, sing praises unto Him;
Talk ye of all His marvellous works.
Glory ye in His holy name:
Let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord.
Seek ye the Lord and His strength;
Seek His face evermore.

(Second Group):

O Lord, how manifold are Thy works!
In wisdom hast Thou made them all:
The earth is full of Thy riches.
O praise the Lord, all ye nations;
Laud Him, all ye peoples.
For His lovingkindness is great toward us;
And the truth of the Lord endureth forever.
Praise ye the Lord.

Unison:

I will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart;
I will show forth all Thy marvellous works.
I will be glad and exult in Thee;
I will sing praise to Thy name, O Thou Most High.

Song: "We Plow the Fields, and Scatter." Third stanza. Hymn 181.

We thank Thee, then, O Father, for all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest, our life, our health, our food;
No gifts have we to offer, for all Thy love imparts,
But that which Thou desirest, our humble, thankful hearts.

Refrain:

All good gifts around us are sent from heaven above;
Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord for all His Love. Amen.

Her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

Let us praise Him.
God gave us the right to love.
Let us praise Him.
God gave us our friends to love.
Let us praise Him.
God gave us our mothers to love.
Let us praise Him. Amen.

Prayer (Unison): Dear Father in Heaven, if we attempt to thank Thee for all Thy good gifts, we will be unable to name them, but of all these gifts none is more beautiful than the gift of our mothers. To them we owe the knowledge of Thy love and goodness. As they have followed in Thy steps and relied upon Thee for guidance, may we follow their example and be worthy of their love and prayers. Help us so to live that we may bring only joy and happiness to them. Help us so to live that we may be thanking Thee for this greatest of all gifts to us. In Jesus' name, we ask it. Amen.

Song: "Love Divine." Hymn 27.

Short Talk: (Let this be assigned beforehand).

I'm sure that we would differ less,
And clasp our hands in friendliness,
If I knew you and you knew me."
—Nixon Waterman.

Prayer (Unison): O God, help us to know each other.

Scripture (Leader): God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that He is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands.

(Unison): And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation.

Prayer (All): Help us to realize, our Father, that our own nation needs the story as well as other nations. Help each of us as individuals to do our part.

Song: "Follow the Gleam." Hymn 92.

Story: In a coal mine in the west, children from many nations were gathered around their teacher at the settlement. She was showing them a picture of Christ blessing little children and teaching them to say, "God Is Our Father." One after the other learned the lesson correctly but when she asked the little Mexican girl, Maria, the answer quickly came, "God is my Father." "Oh, no, Maria," said the teacher, "it is very selfish for us to say 'God is my Father.' We must learn to say 'God is Our Father.'" It was not easy for the little girl to remember to say "Our Father," but finally after many attempts she learned her lesson. Have we learned ours?

The Lord's Prayer:

"OUR Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
For ever. Amen.

Silent Prayer (With soft music).

Song: "Angels, Roll the Rock Away." Hymn 216.

Prayer: On Easter day we would open our hearts, O Lord, as the tomb was opened. May there come from them consecrated lives dedicated to the service of mankind. This will be possible only if in our hearts has been sealed the love of Christ—Help us seal our hearts, O God—Help us open our hearts, O God. Amen.

Scripture (Responsive Reading): In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the Mother Mary to see the sepulchre.

And behold, there was a great earthquake, for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow

And for fear of him the keepers did shake and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women, "Fear not ye, for I know ye seek Jesus, which was crucified."

He is not here, for he is risen as he said. (Matt. 28:1-6.)

Song: "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today." Hymn 213.

Song: "Love Thyself Last," Hymn 174, or "Blest Be the Tie," Hymn 38.

Prayer (Unison): Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for all the gifts Thou hast given us for our physical comforts, but most of all we thank Thee for our friends and companions. Help us to be true, worthy of the love and confidence of our friends. We realize our unworthiness and we humbly ask Thee to forgive us for our sins. When we fail to be our best we are sinning against our friends and Thee. Help us to have such radiant love for Thee that it may be as a ministering angel to those about us. Bless our fellowship, we pray Thee, and grant that it may be true to the highest ideals of Jesus Christ for us. Amen.

Solo: "I Would Be True." Hymn 175.

Scripture (Responsive): Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God, and everyone that loveth is begotten of God and knoweth God.

He that loveth not knoweth not God, for God is love.

Herein was the love of God manifested in us, that God hath sent His only begotten Son into the world that we might live through Him.

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. (John 4:7-11.)

Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace shall be with you. (II Cor. 13:11.)

Song: "Jesus Calls Us." Hymn 154.

Some Great Thoughts About the Bible:

Leader: Daniel Webster, who read the Bible through once a year, said, "If we abide by the principles taught in the Bible our country will go on prospering and to prosper. but if we and our posterity neglect its instructions and authority no man can tell how sudden a catastrophe may overwhelm us."

Audience: At ten years of age Abraham Lincoln had read the Bible through three times. He said, "All the good from the Saviour of the world is communicated through this Book; but for this Book we could not know right from wrong. All the things desirable to man are contained in it."

Leader: Coleridge said, "The Bible finds me as no other book does."

Audience: And Horace Greeley said, "It is impossible to mentally or socially enslave a Bible-reading people."

Song: "Thy Word, O Lord, Is My Delight," Hymn 61, or "How Firm a Foundation," Hymn 186.

294 SING UNTO THE LORD

Psalm 96

Oh, sing unto the Lord a new song; sing unto the Lord, all the earth.

Sing unto the Lord, bless his name; show forth his salvation from day to day.

Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

For the Lord is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the Lord made the heavens.

Honor and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

Give unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the Lord glory and strength.

Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering and come into his courts.

Oh, worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth:

The world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously.

Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof.

Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein:

Then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord:

For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth:

He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

295 GOD IN NATURE

Psalm 19

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork.

Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

There is no speech nor language, where the voice is not heard.

Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun.

Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honey-comb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me; then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

296 THE GOODNESS OF JEHOVAH

Psalm 103-1-18

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies:

Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.

The Lord executeth righteous acts, and judgments for all that are oppressed.

He made known his ways unto Moses, His doings unto the children of Israel.

The Lord is full of compassion, and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

He will not always chide; neither will he keep his anger for ever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us after our iniquities.

For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

For he knoweth our frame; He remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children:

To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his precepts to do them.

297 JESUS AND THE CHILDREN

Matt. 18:1-6; Mark 10:13-16

At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

And they brought young children to him, that he should teach them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

And he took them up in his arms, and put his hands upon them and blessed them.

298 THE FATHER'S CARE

Matt. 6:19-21; 25-34

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment?

Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not of much more value than they?

And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto his stature?

And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

Yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Be not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

299 THE SPIRIT OF WISDOM

Isaiah 11:1-7, 9; Matt. 28:19-20

And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding.

The spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord;

And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord:

And he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth:

And he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth,

And with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid;

And the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost;

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

300 MY NEIGHBOR

Luke 10:25-37

And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him.

And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him: and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

And he said, He that showed mercy on him.

Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

301 THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

John 1:1-14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake;

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you,

And shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven.

For so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Ye are the salt of the earth. Ye are the light of the world.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

303 SERVICE TO THE NEEDY

Matt. 25:34-45

Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

For I was hungry, and ye gave me to eat; I was thirsty and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

Naked and ye clothed me: I was sick and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Then shall he say unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

For I was hungry and ye did not give me to eat; I was thirsty and ye gave me no drink:

I was a stranger and ye took me not in: naked and ye clothed me not: sick and in prison, and ye visited me not.

Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

304 THE FORGIVING FATHER

Luke 15:11-24; 1 John 3:1

And he said, A certain man had two sons:

And the younger of them said to his father,

Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat; and no man gave unto him.

And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

And he arose and came to his father.

But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

And the son said unto him,

Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat and be merry;

For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God.

305 THE LAW OF THE LORD

Psalm 19:7-11; 119:9-16; 19:14

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple:

The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes:

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; sweeter also than honey, and the honey-comb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to thy word.

With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

Blessed art thou, O Lord: teach me thy statutes.

With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

306 REASONABLE SERVICE

Romans 12:1-13

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service.

And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind.

That ye may prove what is the good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think;

But to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to each man a measure of faith.

For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members have not the same office:

So we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

And having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us,

Whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith;

Or ministry, let us give ourselves to our ministry;

Or he that teacheth, to his teaching;

Or he that exhorteth, to his exhorting;

He that giveth, let him do it with liberality;

He that ruleth, with diligence;

He that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness.

Let love be without dissimulation, abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another;

Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

Distributing to the necessities of the saints; given to hospitality.

307 WISDOM AND UNDERSTANDING

Proverbs 3:13-23, 26

Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding:

For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

She is more precious than rubies:

And none of the things thou canst desire are to be compared unto her.

Length of days is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor.

Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her:

And happy is every one that retaineth her.

The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.

By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.

My son, let them not depart from thine eyes; keep sound wisdom and discretion:

So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck.

Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

For the Lord shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

308 THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE

Psalm 34

1. I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

7 The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8 O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the Lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

16 The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

22 The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

309 THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE

Isaiah 12

1 And in that day thou shalt say, O Lord, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortest me.

2 Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

4 And in that day shall ye say, Praise the Lord, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.

5 Sing unto the Lord; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth.

6 Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.
